

To the FCC,

I am an independent voter and very concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. This threat by Sinclair is disturbing and I hope the FCC will, in turn, take action.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. This matter is very serious to me, my family, and friends.

Thank you for your time and consideration,
